

Antique Edwardian Arts and Crafts Style Sterling Silver Presentation Bowl

This fine antique Edwardian sterling silver presentation bowl has a circular form onto a circular sweeping pedestal foot, in the Arts and Crafts style. The surface of the bowl has a planished finish. The body of the bowl is ornamented with three rivet decorated vacant shield shaped cartouche in addition to three organic geometric shaped plaques. The bowl is fitted with three elegant loop handles with bifurcating lower sockets and Art Nouveau style floral stigma designs to the terminals. This fine example of Edwardian silverware is fitted to a circular ebonised wood plinth, with two vacant silver inscription bands; each band may be engraved with a personal inscription if so desired.

Dimensions

Height on plinth 37cm/14.6"
Height to top of handles 30cm/11.75"
Width across handles 32cm/12.5"
Diameter of top 24cm/9.4"
Diameter of plinth base 21.5cm/8.5"

Weight

59 troy ounces/1835g

Maker: James Deakin & Sons (John & William F Deakin)

Origin: Sheffield, England

Date: 1905

Insurance Replacement Value: $4,805.00

Andrew Campbell

Director

